Virtual Meeting Rooms & your board members

Traditionally, high purchase costs and the specialist skill sets and infrastructure needed to support and manage video, along with the scepticisms of the reliability of using video conferencing, has for too long discouraged wide scale adoption.

With UCi2i's video managed services and Virtual Meeting Rooms, we relieve you from those technical frustrations, costs and infrastructure needs, delivering an everyday, reliable, secure, supported and high definition video experience for all your board members needs.

Keeping personal relationships with investors and stakeholders, and being able to bring multiple people together at short notice to discuss highly confidential agendas, are crucial for any company board. This means on-demand, secure and reliable communications is vital.

Minimise the need for local and international travel, saving time, money and your carbon footprint.

Enjoy high definition, security and unlimited usage.

Increase collaboration, productivity and profitability.

Enjoy around the clock, global support - real people, speaking your language.

Investor liaison

Keeping your relationships with investors and potential investors fresh and frequent can be time consuming, especially when they are located in varying areas around the world. The expense of travel soon eats into your bottom line.

Dedicated Virtual Meeting Rooms for use of the board, offer an all-in-one solution to increasing face to face contact with investors and important stakeholders, without the technical headaches and high costs traditionally associated with video conferencing.

We understand that with any board discussion, confidential communications is vital. Our Virtual Meeting Rooms are secure, pin protected and end to end encrypted, offering a risk-free way to hold multi-participant video calls with anyone, on any standards based video device.

Your Virtual Meeting Room can be accessed from anywhere in the world, so no matter where you find yourself, you're only one click away from the people that matter.

Internal presentations and reviews

Departments and individual employees often need to report to, and present new ideas to the company board in order to gain approval and decision making authority. However, it's often difficult to schedule a time when all board members can be present together.

By using video communications via Virtual Meeting Rooms, your entire company will find it easier to reach the people they need to - creating an open, productive and more decisive company culture.

Virtual Meeting Rooms make it simple to come together face to face and share content at just a click of a button, in high definition, securely - as easy as a phone call.

UCi2i Virtual Meeting Rooms have just one fixed-priced monthly subscription fee with all you can eat, unlimited usage - making it the affordable way to stay connected.

Monthly board meetings

Bring your board together for your monthly review meetings regardless of location, meaning greater control and quicker responses to business strategy. The high definition quality and desktop, application and content sharing, allow your meetings to delve into detail quickly, giving you the power to make faster decisions and collaborate productively.

With dedicated Virtual Meeting Rooms, your board can pull together virtual teams across the business quickly to assist with resolving issues. Your globally dispersed board members can meet anytime, creating an open and productive company culture that comes straight from the top.

Fully managed and supported globally, your Virtual Meeting Room is your boards reliable, everyday, risk-free means of communicating and sharing instantly.

Geography and time are no longer your enemy, as you can meet anyone instantly, on any device, without needing to leave your home or office.
